

THE GLOBAL STUDIES MAJOR: DRIVEN BY YOUR INTERESTS!

Core Courses

1. GS101 Introduction to GS I: Political Economy
2. GS102 Introduction to GS II: Race, Culture, Identity
3. GS290 Research Methods
4. GS301 Theories of Global Political Economy
5. GS302 Theories of Global Cultural Studies
6. GS4xx SYE (Senior Project)

Plus one of the following 3 concentration options:

Option A

- 3 courses in each of 2 geographical or cultural areas (see list on the right)
- At least one semester of a second language

Option B

- 4 courses in one geographic or cultural area
- 2 semesters of intro-level or one semester of 200-level language study related to area concentration

Option C

- 3 courses in one geographic or cultural area
- 3 courses in one thematic area
- At least one semester of a second language

Geographic and cultural areas

- African
- African-American
- Asian
- Canadian
- Caribbean/Latin American
- European
- Native American
- Other (e.g. Middle East) w/dept. approval

Thematic areas

- Environmental
- Gender/Sexuality
- Peace
- Other (e.g. development, media) w/dept. approval

Plus → 2 Global Studies elective courses