

Spread your wings,

World Languages Week March 22nd - March 26th

learn a new language

Monday March 22

4:30-6:30pm

Lotería: A Mexican game of chance (Organized by: La Sociedad Hispana)
Winston Room

6:30-7:30pm

Cultural Performance: a showcase of music, dance, & poetry representing various cultural traditions
Winston Room

8:00-10:00pm

Movie: The Namesake (Sponsored by Islamic Culture Club) Winston Room

Tuesday March 23

11:30am-1:00pm

Language Resource Center & International Studies Info Table
Student Center
Stop by to have your name written in another language

4:30-5:30pm

Poetry for Peace
Brush Art Gallery
Students from MLL department will read poetry in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Spanish and Swahili

6:30-8:00pm

Kendo demonstration & workshop NC 107

Wednesday March 24

4:30-5:30pm

French trivia game (Organized by the French Club)
Carnegie 10

10:00pm

Tea Time
SYKES 2616
Hosted by I-House & Literacy for Nepal

Thursday March 25

11:30am-1:00pm

Language Resource Center & International Studies Info Table
Student Center

5:30-7:30pm

SLU International Iron Chef: Co-sponsored by Dining Services : a LIVE cooking contest.. Applications on SLUWire - Dana

8:00-10:30pm

Himalaya: The story of a generational struggle for the leadership of a tiny mountain village between its proud old chief and a headstrong young caravanner. Carnegie 10.

Friday March 26

5:00-7:00pm

European Night
Eben Holden
Join I-House for an evening of cultural performances & European influenced cuisine (Sponsored by I-HOUSE)

- During the World Languages Week, KSLU radio will be playing foreign music from 8 to 9 pm.
- Literacy For Nepal will be selling t-shirts & scarves in the Student Center everyday during lunch.

World Languages Week Sponsored by:

The Center for International & Intercultural Studies, Language Resource Center and Modern Languages Department