Once again, the New York Urban League's Fair will be held at the Riverbank State Park, located at 145th Street and Riverside Drive.

The Fair will host over 40 HBCU's which will provide: application fee waivers; on-site admissions; and workshops for students, parents, teachers, counselors and anyone interested in higher education.

Attendees who register online will be eligible for special prizes that will be raffled off during the day.

The day will conclude with a Step Challenge highlighting one of the extra-curricula activities that can be found on HBCU campuses.

For further information call 212-926-8000, Ext. 121 (New York Urban League HBCU Information Hotline/Voicemail) or email hbcu@nyul.org <<mailto:hbcu@nyul.org>> .

At last year's Fair over 1,500 Fee Waivers were offered to attending students, over 350 students were offered admissions on-site, and over 340 scholarships won.

Thank you for supporting the New York Urban League and for helping to empower the next generation of students through education. Because of you, we are changing the lives of students throughout the communities of the Greater New York area!

We encourage you to spread the word about events and programs like this from the New York Urban League to your family, friends, colleagues and associates.
