

ECONOMICS –AFRICAN STUDIES COMBINED MAJOR

[For students matriculating after 2004]

The requirements for the combined major in African Studies and Economics are given below. It is essential that the student work closely with advisors in both the Economics Department and the African Studies Advisory Board in planning his/her program.

ECONOMICS	AFRICAN STUDIES
*ECON 100 Introduction to Economics ECON 200 Quantitative Methods ECON 251 Intermediate Microeconomic Theory ECON 252 Intermediate Macroeconomics Theory FOUR other electives in Economics. At least two of which must be at the 300/400 level and at least two of which must be selected from: ECON 228 African Economies ECON 322 International Economics ECON 336 Economic Development	ONE approved 400-level African Studies course such as AFS 402, Seminar on African Development. FOUR other African Studies courses
8 units	5 units

This course may be omitted with advanced placement credit or other advanced standing.*

Students taking (1) Mathematics 213 or 325 or 326 OR (2) MATH 113 and either MATH 135 or MATH 136 with at least a grade of 3.0 in each, may take another economics elective in lieu of Economics 200.*

In addition to maintaining a 2.0 university-wide cumulative average, students majoring in the African studies-economics combined major must maintain a 2.0 cumulative average on all economics and African studies courses taken and must earn at least a 2.0 in Economics 251 and Economics 252. Economics 251 and 252 must be taken at St. Lawrence before the end of the junior year. Accounting 203 and 204 and Economics 108 and 115 do not count towards the combined major.

Graduation with honors may be recommended upon the basis of grades, the completion of an honors project approved and supervised by a faculty member, and an oral presentation of the thesis. Students who expect to undertake such a program should consult with the department chairman of economics or coordinator of African studies in the last term of their junior year.

I UNDERSTAND AND AGREE TO THE REQUIREMENTS STATED ABOVE.
