

ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY

2009 – 2010 International Student Financial Aid Application

Although St. Lawrence University offers financial resources to international students, there is a high level of competition in our applicant pool for assistance. As a result, one of the factors considered in determining admission to St. Lawrence University is financial need. For this reason, we advise you to realistically estimate your available financial resources on your financial aid application form. Underestimating may negatively affect your chances for admission, but overestimating may leave you unable to afford all four years at St. Lawrence University.
