Benjamin Kip Glass Plate Negative Collection
Mss. Coll. 88

Biographical
Benjamin M. Kip was born August 27, 1871 in Canton, the youngest child of Henry Devalcourt Kip and Harriet Ball Kip. After attending Canton schools he graduated from the New York Art School. From 1890 to 1905 he was in partnership in Canton with the photographer Henry P. Copeland, after which time he was a professional photographer until his retirement in 1948. He died at his home at 17 Chapel Street in 1957.

Scope and Content
Approximately 500 photographic images (mostly glass plate negatives) documenting people and places, mostly in Canton, but also Potsdam, NY, from the 1890’s to the 1940’s.

Additional glass plate negatives thought to be by B. Kip are held in the Canton Town historian’s office.

Provenience
Gift of the family.

Series
The collection is divided into four series:

Series I  Town & Village Souvenir Books
- Potsdam Souvenir
- Ogdensburg or Canton Souvenir
- Gouverneur Souvenir
- Lowville Souvenir

Series II  Photographs of Individuals

Series III  St. Lawrence University
3.1 Fraternities
3.2 Sororities
3.3 Views of Campus

Series IV  St. Lawrence School of Agriculture
4.1 Fraternities and Sororities
4.2 Views of the State School of Agriculture

Note: The State School of Agriculture (SOA) was established as a division of St. Lawrence University (SLU) in 1906. It continued as such until 1941 when, still a part of St. Lawrence, it became known as the Agricultural and Technical Institute (ATI). With the creation of the State University of New York in 1948, ATI ceased being affiliated with St. Lawrence University became a separate school within the New York system.
