

Language Resource Center

The Language Resource Center (LRC) supports faculty and students in the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures in the use of technology in language teaching and learning. LRC, an extension of the Instructional Technology Division of Information Technology, is a dynamic environment that encourages creative pedagogies.

Our Services include:

Resource Collection

Hundreds of foreign language films in VHS and DVD format, music, maps, dictionaries, self-study language materials, and games.

Documentation on using diacritical marks in foreign languages

Step by step instructions on how to use accents and special characters when typing on a computer.

Wireless Access and Laptops

Laptops with wireless cards and lab software available for student use in Carnegie Hall.

Links to Online Resources

Resources include teaching materials, textbook exercises, news & newspapers, SLU's international TV lineup, and much more.

STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITIES @SLU

The best way to learn a language or culture is through interaction with the locals. St. Lawrence gives you this opportunity for cultural and language immersion through its wide range of study-abroad programs in 6 continents.

Travel is more than the seeing of sights; it is a change that goes on, deep and permanent, in the ideas of living.- Miriam Beard

You can either choose to go for a semester or a year to one of the places listed below or go to a place of your choice through ISEP.

St. Lawrence has off-campus programs in the following countries:

Australia, Austria, Canada, China, Costa Rica, Denmark, England, France, India, Italy, Japan, Kenya, Spain, Trinidad, and United States.
