

Rape and Sexual Assault
Should Never Happen.
But if they do, there are people who can help.

If you or someone you know has been raped or sexually assaulted there are people in the St. Lawrence University community who are trained to help.

If you need hospital care, emotional support, counseling, legal or campus judicial advice, or someone to provide you with options, select from the list of Advocates (located on the inside cover of the Larry) or page the Advocate On-Call available on a 24/7 basis at the number below.

SLU Advocates: SLU Advocates are faculty, staff and students who are trained to respond to incidents of rape and sexual assault.
