FAMILY WEEKEND 2017 SCHEDULE

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6

8 a.m. – 10 p.m.
Special Family Weekend Exhibits | Owen D. Young Library
St. Lawrence Buildings: A Chronology | Special Collections Reading Room
From a single brick building on ‘The Hill’ to today’s modern university, explore the physical evolution of the St. Lawrence campus through the years.
St. Lawrence Presidents: From Lee to Fox | Special Collections Reading Room
Through its history, St. Lawrence has been shaped by outstanding men and women. See how the University’s 18 top leaders have made their mark over 160+ years.
Who was Owen D. Young? | ODY Lobby
Perhaps no one person played a more active or important role in the development of St. Lawrence University than the namesake of our library. This, at the same time he was an industrial giant and one of the most important diplomats of his day. Explore the remarkable impact of Owen D. Young as a St. Lawrence University student and trustee, and as a philanthropist, captain of industry, and public servant.
Additional exhibit hours available Saturday and Sunday.

OTHER INFORMATION

Alcohol Policy: The Family Weekend Committee reminds parents that St. Lawrence is governed by New York State alcohol consumption laws. The state legal drinking age is 21. The University alcohol policy applies to students, faculty, staff and guests of the University. It prohibits consumption of alcoholic beverages at public events including, but not limited to, films, lectures, athletic contests, and performances.

Emergency Contact: To assist our staff, family and friends are encouraged to leave an emergency contact number at the check-in/registration tables in the Sullivan Student Center.

Meal Pass: Registered guests will be provided with a name badge to use for the continental breakfast with President Fox (Saturday at 10 a.m.) Registered families also have the opportunity to pre-purchase meal passes to Dana Dining Center for your convenience. St. Lawrence students should use their meal card for meals at Dana Dining Center.

Parking: Families are invited to park in any of the available University parking lots. Should you drive a self-contained trailer or motor home, parking is available in the upper section of J-Parking Lot closest to Park Street. However, there are no facilities or hookups. We ask that you park in this area only.

Pet Policy: University policy prohibits pets, with the exception of service animals, from being brought inside University buildings.

Security and Safety: Please call 315-229-5555 in an emergency.

Be sure to tag your Family Weekend photos, videos, and Tweets! #SLUFamily
