Learning Goals Department of Music
Revised December 2014

1. the importance of close, active listening, as well as articulating what one is hearing
2. the importance of participating actively and reliably in collective work
3. the importance of learning to lead responsibly
4. the importance of responsible decision-making
5. the importance of a disciplined approach to problem-solving