

Globalization, Hip Hop Music and Culture in Ghana

(October 13-17)

Schedule of Events for M.anifest and Dr. Halifu Osumare

Sunday, October 12

Evening Dr. Osumare arrives @ SLU

Monday, October 13 – Dr. Osumare and M.anifest

Morning M.anifest arrives @ SLU

10:30-12:00 Dr. Osumare meets with Dr. Stoddard's "Cultural Studies" class (Noble 225)

7:00-8:30 M.anifest and Dr. Osumare meet and dialogue with members of ASU and BSU

Tuesday, October 14 – Dr. Osumare and M.anifest

10:10-11:40 M.anifest meets with 2 FYP Colleges - Eaton College (Reading the Body) and Campbell College (Blues People) in ODY Library (MacAllaster Room)

1:00-2:10 M.anifest meets with Dr. Erik Johnson's "Intercultural Communication" class (Noble 226)

5:00-6:45 Dinner with invited faculty members (Brush Alumni House)

7:00-9:00 Dr. Osumare's Lecture – "The Hiplife in Ghana: West African Indigenization of Hip-Hop"; M.anifest – artist's response to lecture (Hepburn 218)

Wednesday, October 15 – M.anifest Only

10:00-11:00 Tour of the campus; Interview with the school's Hill Newspaper

1:00 - 2:20 Meet with Dr. Udechukwu's "West African Art" class (Noble Center 226)

2:30 - 4:00pm Meet with Dr. Bass's "Hip Hop and Poetry" class (Richardson 105)

4:00-5:00pm Meet with David Sommerstein from NCPR

6:00-7:30 M.anifest Lecture – "Globalization, music and the formation of complex identities in the internet era" (Bloomer Auditorium); Rutendo Chabikwa '17 responds to lecture.

Thursday, October 16 – M.anifest Only

8:30 AM - 10:00 Meet with Dr. Carotenuto's "Introduction to African Studies" class (Carnegie Hall 112)

Afternoon Lunch and then prepare for performance

7:30-10pm Musical Performance on campus – the Underground

Friday, October 17

Morning M.anifest leaves SLU