Information regarding your GATE STUDENT Loan

NOTICE: Due to the disruption in the credit markets in 2007, some of you may have loans serviced at American Education Services (AES) with two separate owners. For example, National Collegiate Trust may own some of your GATE loans and Bank of America may own others. All loans are serviced at American Educational Services (AES), so please ensure that you pay both bills if they should arrive separately.

St. Lawrence University is please to provide you with loans repayment materials for your GATE Education Loan. Please keep this brochure in a safe place as it contains important repayment information on your loan.

REPPAYING YOUR LOAN

Schedule
For loans processed prior to July 2004, there is a thirteen year graduated repayment schedule. Interest only payments begin at the end of the grace period following your graduation or loss of at least half-time enrollment status. Following the five year interest only repayment period, monthly payments of principal and interest begin and increase gradually over the next eight years.

For loans process July 2004 and after, there is a twenty year level repayment schedule. You may also choose to customize your payment schedule with 5 years of interest only payments, followed by 15 years of principal and interest payments. There are also other customized repayment schedules available. Please contact AES Loan Servicing at (800) 233-0557 to set up a customized repayment schedule.

Grace Period
Following graduation, or if your enrollment falls below halftime, there is a six-month grace period during which no loan payments are required.

No prepayment penalty
The GATE Education Loan can be paid in full or in part at any time without penalty. Prepayments are applied first to any accrued interest and then to loan principal.

Paid ahead status while in repayment
GATE Education Loans allow you to pay ahead by paying more than the billed amount. Any payments made in excess of the billed amount will be automatically credited to principal. No additional monthly payments will be due (although you can still make voluntary payments) until the amount of your next payment due exceeds the amount you prepaid.

DEFERMENT AND FORBEARANCE OPTIONS

The GATE Education Loan carries many of the same deferment and forbearance options found in the Stafford and Ford Direct Loan Program. However, unlike these programs, the repayment period is fixed from the original graduation date on the credit agreement. Subsequent deferments and/or forbearances do not extend the repayment period. Instead, the remaining payments are adjusted to adhere to the original repayment schedule. Forms for deferment and forbearance can be accessed online at www.aessuccess.org.

No payments during graduate study
Deferments for up to 5 years of graduate study following your graduation are available. Interest that is deferred during period of graduate study is capitalized (added to principal) once when your loan is brought into repayment. The deferments do not extend the repayment period beyond the original term of 13 year (loans processed prior to July 2004) or 20 year (loans processed July 2004 and after).
Deferments
Students may apply for deferment of principal and interest payments for service in one of the following programs:
- Pearce Corps (up to 24 months)
- Jesuit Volunteer Corps (up to 24 months)
- AmeriCorps (up to 12 months)

Forbearance
- Forbearances are granted in six month intervals for up to a total of 24 months.
- Medical Forbearance is available throughout the life of the loan.
- Economic Hardship Forbearances are available during the interest only portion of your payment schedule.
- Temporary Financial Hardship is available during the principal and interest period.

Requests
Forms for deferments and forbearance can be accessed online at www.aessuccess.org.

All deferment and forbearance requests must be approved by AES, and you are responsible for payments due prior to approval notification.
