Note: We may require additional documentation if we have reason to believe that the information regarding family members enrolled in eligible postsecondary educational institutions is inaccurate.

C. Student Tax Filers

Instructions: The instructions below apply to the student and spouse (if the student is married). Notify the financial aid office if the student and spouse filed separate IRS income tax returns for 2023 or had a change in marital status after December 31, 2023.

Check the appropriate box below that describes your 2023 tax filing status:

☐ The student, and student's spouse (if student is married) filed a 2023 tax return.

☐ The student, and student's spouse (if student is married) did not file a 2023 tax return. (Proceed to Section D)

As part of federal student aid eligibility, students, and spouses (as appropriate), will be required to consent and approve sharing and importing income and tax information from the IRS to the FAFSA form, even if the attempt to obtain or use such data is ineffective. In other words, if the student and spouse filed separate 2023 IRS income tax returns, both must provide consent and approval to share and import income and tax information from the IRS. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2023 income information that was transferred into the student's FAFSA using income and tax information directly from the IRS.

If 2023 income tax return information for the student (or spouse, if applicable) was not available or could not be used, the student should provide the institution with a 2023 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) or a SIGNED copy of the 2023 income tax return and applicable schedules.

For help requesting a 2023 IRS Tax Return Transcript please contact the Financial Aid Office.

D. Student and Spouse Nontax Filers
Instructions: The instructions and certifications below apply to the student and spouse (if the student is married.) Complete this section if the student and spouse will not file and are not required to file a 2023 income tax return with the IRS.
