Satisfaction Information

Satisfaction Information

At the time of this survey, 288 graduates reported full-time employment. Of the 271 reporting, 43% indicated their job was directly related to their desired career path which was up from 34% in 2013. An additional 40% of the respondents reported they were in a job that was somewhat related to their desired career path. The Class of 2014 remained steady with the number of respondents who secured jobs prior to graduation or 1 month or less after graduation (43% in 2014 and 42% in 2013).

St. Lawrence University graduates in the Class of 2014 working full-time were highly satisfied with their employment with 94% very satisfied or satisfied with their current job. This remains the same as last year's 94%. Despite the uncertain employment market, results of this survey show that more than half of the respondents sought out and accepted positions related to their desired career path and were satisfied with that employment. In addition, 82% of graduates reported being engaged in employment that would typically be held by someone with a bachelor's degree or higher.

Salary Information

Salary Information

The mean starting salary reported for the Class of 2014 was $39,597, up from $36,066 for the Class of 2013. The median salary range has increased to $35,000-35,999 compared to 34,000-34,999 in 2013.

The Class of 2014 saw a decrease by 11% in the jobs accepted under $35,000 making up only 39.25%, compared with 50.27% in 2013, and 61.93% in 2012. The Class of 2014 also had a 5% increase in the number of graduates receiving salaries of $55,000 or higher compared to 2013. The percentage of graduates obtaining salaries of $40,000 or higher remains the same as last year at 36%, and a steady increase of 32% during 2008–2012. In addition the percentage of members from the Class of 2014 in the lowest three salary ranges (at or below $29,999) was down 4% from last year.
