MSS. COLL. NO. 025

312 linear feet

Biographical Note

Robert C. McEwen was born January 5, 1920 and died June 15, 1997 in Ogdensburg, New York. He was educated at Mount Hermon private school, University of Vermont, and graduated from Albany Law School in 1947. In 1952, McEwen married Anita M. "Pat" Sharples. After service in the Army Air Force, McEwen returned to practice law in Ogdensburg in 1946. On January 5, 1964 he entered the New York State Senate as a Republican and served for 10 years. In 1964 he became New York's thirty-first representative in the United States House of Representatives where he served until his retirement in 1980. He received honorary degrees/citations from St. Lawrence University (1965 and 1967), Clarkson College of Technology (1980), and Potsdam State University (1981). McEwen served as Director of the Ogdensburg Trust Company, National Bank of Northern New York in Watertown and was a member of the Elks, Masons, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Scope & Content

This collection consists of 2 series of papers. The first series, which is available to researchers, are the papers of McEwen while in the House of Representatives from 1964 through 1980. Included is information on Fort Drum, 1980 Winter Olympics, Vietnam War, St. Lawrence Seaway, abortion, agriculture, and the different committees he served on.

The second series consists of correspondence from various individuals seeking assistance from Representative McEwen on personal and private matters and is not open to the public.
