

Stereoscopic Views of a moose hunt in Nova Scotia (ca. 1910)

MSS #187

.50 linear feet

Background

The “Oh You! Scraggy Club” was apparently a hunting club active in the southern-central part of Nova Scotia around 1910. The club was apparently located in the Loon Pond-Scraggy Lake area.

Scope and Content

The collection consists of eight stereoscopic photo cards depicting activities related to a moose hunt by members of the Oh You! Scraggy Club in 1910. None of the people in the photos are identified but five of the three-dimensional images have some writing on the back. The collection also includes a viewer for the images called a Holmes stereoscope.

Keywords

Stereoscope, photography, stereoscopic views, hunting, Scraggy Lake, Nova Scotia

Description of Collection

Photo 1	Oh You! Scraggy Club, 1910	Club members posing in camp
Photo 2	On the way—Resting	Club members carrying canoes
Photo 3	On the way—arrived and boat launched	Three men and dog in a canoe
Photo 4	A Juicy lunch	Four men eating in a clearing
Photo 5	On the way from Scraggy to Loon Pond
Photo 6	no caption	Seven men around a camp site
Photo 7	no caption	Five men surrounding a moose kill
Photo 8	no caption	Seven men near canoes

Stereoscope viewer