History

The early land transactions of the North Country are a complex story of collusion and speculation. The following is a brief overview of some of the key events:

1783 September 3. Treaty of Paris ends the war of revolution. United States is recognized.

1784 Constable & Co., a trading and investment company is formed by W. Constable, G. Morris and Robert Morris for 7 years.

1786 May 5. NY State Legislature approves an act for the division and sale of “unappropriated lands of the State”. Each township created under this act is to be 64,000 acres in size and as square as possible and further divided into mile square lots and numbered in progression. The townships were to be sold either in quarters or in single lots.

10 towns in the St. Lawrence River Valley are created: (Ben Wright, surveyor)
Louisville, Stockholm, Potsdam, Madrid, Lisbon, Canton, DeKalb, Oswegatchie,
Hague (Morristown), and Cambray (Gouverneur).

1787 July 10. Public auction of the 10 towns at the Merchant’s Coffee House located on the southeast corner of Wall and Water streets in lower Manhattan. High bidders include Michael Connoly, John Meyers, Daniel McCormick, Thomas McFarren and others who are actually acting as straw men for Alexander Macomb.

Dec. By the end of the year all the deeds for the 10 towns have been transferred to Macomb.

1788 ? sales by Macomb...?

1789-93 French Revolution

1791 March 22. NYS passes law authorizing stat land commissioners to sell more lands “in such parcels, on such terms, and in such manner as they shall judge most conducive to the interest of the state.”

April. Macomb contracts with Gouverneur Morris as his attorney to sell lots. Constable?

June. “Macomb’s Purchase” NYS accepts Macomb’s offer to purchase 3.7 million acres in six “great tracts” in northern New York at 8 pence an acre with no money down...

1792 March & April Financial panic, caused in part by Macomb’s speculation.

May. Macomb sells 4 towns (Cambray, Hague, DeKalb & Oswegatchie) to Gouverneur Morris, Robert Morris, Henry Knox, and Samuel Ogden for £ 3,200.

June. Macomb unable to pay creditors; jailed in debtors prison...
His land holdings transferred to William Constable and Daniel McCormick

August? Compagnie de New York formed by James LeRay’s brother-in-law, Paul Chassanis, to sell tracts of land to French immigrants fleeing the Revolution.

1801 Constable bankruptcy

1802 St. Lawrence County incorporated from parts of Clinton, Montgomery and Herkimer counties.

While traveling north to visit his lands for the first time and planning to take an active role in the improvement of his vast holdings, making them easier to sell, William Constable suffers a seizure and is forced to return to his home in Manhattan where he dies in 1803 at the age of 51.

1808 David Parish (1778-1826) and his agent Joseph Rosseel begin purchasing land in NNY
